

UPCLIMBER

UPCLIMBER - WINDOW MOUNTING

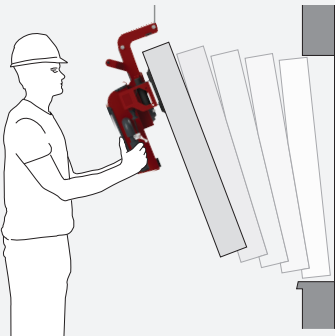

"With Upclimber, one man can mount windows up to 130 kg – without heavy lifting."

The Upclimber is a compact lifting device with built-in motor, battery and wire. When mounting windows with the Upclimber the wire can be hooked up to either a scaffold- or platform suspension."

- Lifting capacity up to 130 kg
- Steps lifting speed
- Window securing Pivot-arm ensures that window bottom is mounted first
- Li-ion battery with high capacity
- Suction discs with manual pumps
- All main functions are activated at the handle
- Durable aluminium casing
- Battery indicator on front
- Adjustable distance between suction discs
- Weight <15 kg

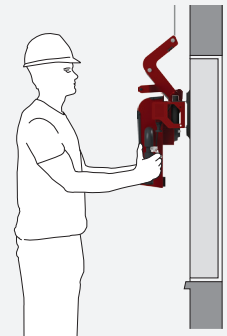

HOW TO DO IT !

The window is lifted by the Upclimber to desired height and led towards the window opening

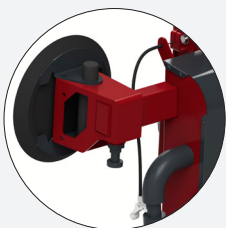

The pivot-arm ensures that the window bottom is mounted/ installed first

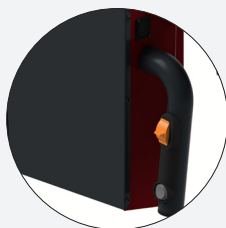

The window is installed into the window opening and the pivot-arm is triggered while window is placed into the frame

FUNCTIONS

Adjustable manual suction discs

On/Off . Up/Down control buttons in handle

Releasable Pivot-arm

Trigger handle for Pivot-arm

Foldable handle for carrying

LOLLE & NIELSEN
INVENTIONS